

HOPEWELL VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY P.O. Box 371 Pennington, New Jersey 08534

The Hopewell Valley Historical Society is proud to announce its first ever bus trip - to Philadelphia and the exciting new Museum of the American Revolution. You will see George Washington's actual camp tent as well as many other Revolutionary War artifacts. During the ride to Philadelphia, HVHS President and noted historian Larry Kidder will talk about the museum and the history of the period. At the Museum, we will have a guided tour as well as time to explore on your own. Lunch is on your own also and you may choose to dine at the Museum's Cross Keys Café or head to a local Philadelphia restaurant. For more museum info, see <http://www.amrevmuseum.org>

WHEN: Saturday, April 7, 2018 - 8:45 AM

WHERE: Meet at the Pennington Market Shopping Center on Route 31

WHAT: The bus will depart at 9AM for Philadelphia and return to the shopping center at approximately 5 PM.

COST: $55 per HVHS members and guests;

The trip is limited to 56 people. Minors must be accompanied by an adult. If we have more reservation requests than seats, we will establish a waiting list, first come first served, so that if anyone with a reservation has to withdraw, a waiting list customer will fill that seat. We will only issue a refund if there is a waiting list at the time of the withdrawal request or if you find a replacement for your seat.

If you wish to reserve your spot, please complete the attached reservation form and mail your check made out to HVHS to:

HVHS
PO Box 371
Pennington, NJ 08534

Please be aware that all guests will be required to sign a waiver to the Society before entering the bus.

Should you have any questions about the trip, please email hvhist@aol.com or call Elaine Weidel Zeltner at 609-751-2436 or George Skic at 609-397-3417.
