

Hopewell Valley Historical Society

NEWSLETTERS

Guide to Feature Articles with Shorter Articles that may be of Interest to Readers

Note: Page numbers with “--” indicate the article continues on one or more pages.

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
I	3	v	The Hopewell Valley Canning Company Established 1897 in Hopewell Borough	Betsy Errickson
II	1	vii	Walking Tour of Pennington Brief notes on seven borough homes
II	1	vii	Early 18th Century Landowners in Harbourton
II	2	ix	History of an Old House The Lewis House on North Main St., Pennington	Alice Blackwell Lewis
II	3	2	Second Baptist Church of Hopewell Also known as Harbourton Baptist Church, founded 1803	Betsy Errickson
III	1	5	Oldest Woman in America From the Hopewell Herald, 1886; Silvia Dubois	excerpted
III	2	7	For Sale: One gold mine. $2.00 Revolutionary War pension records Gives Jonathan Muirhead's service record in the war	Phyllis D'Autrechy
III	2	8	Early Taverns of Hopewell Valley (part 1) Including John McKinstry's in Harbourton	Betsy Errickson
III	3	10	Early Taverns of Hopewell Valley (part 2) Sign of the Black Horse, in Pennington	Betsy Errickson
III	3	10-	The Forebearance of Moving Stories of “moving day” in the 19th century	Alice Blackwell Lewis
IV	1	13	Bethel A.M.E. Cemetery – Research (part 1) Includes tombstone inscriptions
IV	1	14	Local Revolutionary History A claim for damages done by American troops in Dec. 1776, submitted by Richard Slack, ferry owner on the Jersey side where Washington's forces crossed the Delaware	Phyllis D'Autrechy
IV	2	16	Bethel A.M.E. Church Founded in 1816, located on South Main St., Pennington	Mrs. Eva Williamson
IV	2	16-	Bethel A.M.E. Cemetery – Research (part 2)
IV	3	19-	Searching for New Jersey's Civil War Soldiers Includes local muster rolls	Phyllis D'Autrechy
IV	3	21	Manuscript Map of Hopewell Township Research sources to compile land ownership	Betsy A. Errickson
V	1	23	Howell 1900 Living Historical Farm Definition of a Living Historical Farm	Christine Howe Farm administrator

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
V	1	24	The "Canal Connection" The Delaware-Raritan Canal and development of Titusville	Peter G. Maurer
V	2	27	A Look Back Insight into various topics	Phyllis D'Autrechy
V	2	28-	Hopewell Mountain Christian Church Constructed in 1844 on Sourland Mountain	Betsy Errickson
VI	1	31-	Paradise Early taverns in Hopewell Valley	Phyllis D'Autrechy
VI	1	32	Happy Birthday – The Society's Five Year Anniversary
VI	2	39-	Paper Work and Red Tape – Nothing New Peddlers and peddler's licenses in Hopewell Valley	Phyllis D'Autrechy
VI	2	40-	The Clemens Connection Mark Twain's great-great-great grandfather, Ezekiel Clemens, was once a weaver in Hopewell Township	Phyllis D'Autrechy
VI	2	43	The Mystery is Solved The society was on tour and made several stops at historic places
VI	3	47-	Birds of a Feather – The Chicken or the Goose Early beds and bedding in the Hopewell Valley	Phyllis D'Autrechy
VI	3	49-	Early Road Returns of Hopewell Township, Hunterdon County, NJ,	Betsy Errickson
VII	1	56-	Upper Bellemont Farm Detailed application for nomination to National Register of Historic Places, of the stone barn on Rt. 29 near Belle Mountain	Richard Hunter & Richard Porter
VII	2	63-	The Laning Wheelwright Shop History of a building on South Main St., Pennington	Richard W. Butterfoss
VII	2	64-	John Drake Bible Notes from John (1736-1817) and Jemima (1739-?) Drake's bible, and other record sources ... plot of their Titus Mill road property	Phyllis D'Autrechy & Betsy A. Errickson
VII	3	70-	Bridge, Anyone? Early bridges in Hopewell Valley	Phyllis D'Autrechy
VIII	1	77-	John Conrad House, c. 1839 House lineage on South Main St., Pennington	Pam Cain
VIII	1	79-	Hopewell [Township] Town Officers–1844
VIII	1	80-	Old Houses: Their Restoration & Preservation Society member attended conference	Bill Schmidt
VIII	1	81-	The Hopewell Valley in 1834 Very descriptive excerpts from Gordon's Gazetteer
VIII	2	83-	Fourth of July–1836 Describes a local celebration, and discusses local veterans of Revolution who might have taken part: John Fidler (d. aft. 1840), John R. Hart (d. 1845), and Israel Hunt (d. 1842)	Phyllis D'Autrechy

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
VIII	2	85-	It's A Beginning Report of house lineage project: John Titus, Sr. house, ca. 1740; Moses Baldwin, cordwainer, house ca. 1780; Pennington Academy, ca. 1815-1819; Joseph Wiggins, tobacconist, ca. 1840; Walter Bartley house, ca. 1779	Pamela Cain
VIII	3	89-	On Appeal from the Order of Removal Paupers and "Overseers of the Poor"	Phyllis D'Autrechy
IX	1	97-	s or f Explanation of colonial handwriting	Phyllis D'Autrechy
IX	1	99-	A Visitation Lunacy proceedings	Phyllis D'Autrechy
IX	2	101-	The Shad Are Running Includes maps of Delaware River	Phyllis D'Autrechy
IX	3	109-	CCLXXV Years 1709–1984 Pennington Presbyterian Church, a brief historical sketch; early 19th cent. baptisms; notes from other church records	Phyllis D'Autrechy
X	1	115-	Cloathing, Nursing, and Other Expenses Amos Golden's (d. 1804) estate papers, and what they reveal about him and his family.	Phyllis D'Autrechy
X	1	117-	. . . from the Hunterdon Republican–February 1885 Several timely topics
X	2	121-	It's Our 10th! Summary of historical society to date	Jean Koeppel & Ruth Sayer
X	3	125-	The Carpenter, the Wheelwright & The Tavern Keeper Update on house lineage project: George Laning, wheelwright, house ca. 1830; Aaron Carson, carpenter, ca. 1860; J. Cook/Sally Hoagland house, ca. 1850; Samuel Stout, ca. 1756; Andrew Mershon, Tavern Keeper, ca. 1745	Pamela Cain
X	3	130	In Accordance With . . . Summary of the society's purpose and goals
X	3	131	The Red Dragon in the Sky Some insight into Halley's Comet	Phyllis D'Autrechy
XI	1	133-	The Trustees vs. Mr. Michaels Matters relating to "Hopewell Columbia School" ca. 1828	Phyllis D'Autrechy
XI	1	137-	How Time Flies Topics grouped into years: 100, 150, 200, and 250
XI	2	139-	“. . . invest the whole surplus. . ." Relates to property near Old Mill Road, Hopewell Twp.	Phyllis D'Autrechy
XI	3	145-	Girl Scout Troop #30 Troop first met in Pennington, 1933	Phyllis D'Autrechy

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XII	1	151-	Titusville's Land Developers House lineage includes: Joseph Titus house, ca. 1835; Titusville Fruit and Vegetable Canning Company, ca. 1889; Josiah Hart House, ca. 1860; John Welling Home, ca. 1850; Charity and Theodore Vannoy home, ca. 1865; Benjamin Q. Drake House, ca. 1870	Pam Cain
XII	1	157	The Boys Modern Playmate Brief history of (bi)cycling	Phyllis D'Autrechy
XII	3	161	Dr. Henry Welling's Home, ca. 1839 Greek Revival house, 117 South Main St., Pennington
XIII	1	167-	A Building with Possibilities – Harbourton Community Church Story and pictures about refurbishing the building to be used for the Society's "home."
XIV	2	179	American Architectural Oddities Program Notes about the program presented by David Graham, a noted photographer	Bill Schmidt
XIV	2	180	Historical Book Publishing the Hopewell: A Historical Geography
XIV	3	183-	Hopewell House Tour on the 5th Features sketches of several homes
XIV	3	185	Hopewell Herald Microfilms will be Accessible to General Public
XV	1	187	"Roots to You" – Genealogy Workshop Program presented by Janet Riemer from Genealogical magazine of New Jersey	Bonita Craft Grant
XV	2	191	New Jersey State House Restoration Synopsis of the Capitol building renovations	Bill Schmidt
XV	2	194-	John Boggs Recollects Columbia of 1816 Recount of mid-1830's area near Baptist Meeting House in Hopewell; includes map	David Blackwell
XV	3	197-	Special Events at the Howell Farm compliment the HVHS House Tour Review of the Howell Farm beginning	Bill Schmidt
XV	3	199	Snippets From the Past . . .
XV	3	200	More Snippets of Local History
XV	3	202-	Harbourton Gained a Church in 1803 History of the land in Harbourton; including a map	David Blackwell
XVI	1	205-	Introducing The Hunt Family Papers Includes tannery records (1776-1791) found in house at Rosedale Park	David Blackwell

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XVII	1	212	Defending the Delaware in 1777 The British advance across Jersey toward Philadelphia! Benedict Arnold surveyed river crossings; map included	David Blackwell & Jack Davis
XVII	2	215-	Through the Lens of George H. Frisbie Exhibit began at Hopewell Township Library	Bill Schmidt
XVII	2	215-	About the George H. Frisbie Collection Some key information about Frisbie family.	Bill Schmidt
XVII	2	219	Woosamonsa School Some facts and recollections; sketch by M. Kust	Jerry Farina
XVII	2	220	An Anniversary Announcement Hopewell—300 years old	David Blackwell
XVIII	1	223-	Methodist Origins in Pennington Discovering papers relating to the Bunn family	Jack Davis
XVIII	2	229-	1975 to 1985: Our First Ten Years An overview of the launch of the society	Jean Koepfel & Ruth Sayer
XVIII	2	232	Historic African Cemetery Restoration Grant received — African Methodist Church cemetery	Bill Schmidt
XVIII	2	233	Women's Lifestyles in the 1860's	Kathy Cahn
XIX	1	237-	The Hopewell Railroad Station History and restoration comments	From notes by Michael Mills
XIX	1	245	We Could've Had a Centennial!	Jack Davis
XIX	1	246	The Society's Homes (part 1) A review of our repositories	Bill Schmidt
XIX	2	249-	Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Celebration A good time had by all	Bill Schmidt
XIX	2	254-	The Society's Homes (part 2) Further review of our repositories	Bill Schmidt
XIX	3	261	Historic Preservation in Hopewell Valley Introduction to the Township's Preservation Commission's initiatives	Bill Schmidt
XIX	3	262-	Hopewell Township Historic Preservation Progress Made — Challenges Ahead	David Blackwell
XIX	3	269-	Hopewell Borough's Historic District The Valley's first great success	Jim Amon
XIX	4	273-	Hopewell Borough's Historic District Ordinance: Some History of Its Development Further information on the development of the Borough's ordinance	Bill Schmidt

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XIX	4	276-	House Tours and Historic Preservation Overview of Pennington's 1990 Centennial Tour; Hopewell Borough's 1991 Centennial Tour; 1992 Country Excursion	Bill Schmidt
XIX	4	281	Pictorial Tour of Mercer County Graveyards Article mentions various area cemeteries and family burial grounds	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	1	283-	Annual Meeting Hits the Road At the Blawenburg Reformed Church, David Blackwell spoke about Hopewell's early economic development	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	1	284	Hopewell Elementary School Celebrates 75th Anniversary	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	1	289	Stoutsburg Cemetery and the Hamlet That Gave it its Name	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	1	290-	Flood! High Waters on the Delaware Overview of program presented by Carol & Bob Meszaros; photographs included	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	2	295-	Pennington Historic Preservation—A Failure The Borough's attempt at establishing a preservation ordinance	Bill Schmidt
XX	3	303-	Digging Up Trenton's Past For the Holidays Summary of Ian Burrow's program on Trenton's "treasures"	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	3	304	From Dogma to Dog Chow Janet Six presented program on Ralston Heights	Bill Schmidt
XX	4	311-	Native American Life in Valley Explored in Lively Program Bill Guthrie was the enthusiastic presenter	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	4	314-	After Dinner At Tiffany's Roberta A. Mayer presented "Early Business Ventures of Louis C. Tiffany"	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XX	4	316-	A Short History of the Victorian Society in America and the Delaware Valley Chapter	Roberta Mayer
XX	4	319	Genealogy is My Middle Name Explanation on how to start researching	Robert E. Hoagland
XX	4	320	"If They Like It, I Love It!" Kurt Shulte's program on area restorations	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXI	1	323-	Before The Crossing: The Hopewell Valley in December 1776	Jack Davis
XXI	2	331-	Pennington Library: Books On the Go Library celebrates 125 years of service	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXI	2	333	Hessian Exhibit at Old Barracks Museum	Bill Schmidt
XXII	2	334	Phillips House in Hopewell Borough	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXI	2	335	Pennington: Between the Centuries	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXI	2	337	Saint Alphonsus Church Celebrates 125 Years	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXI	3	339-	House Lineage Program & Historic Preservation	Bill Schmidt
XXI	3	342-	HVHS Plaque Program: Plaque Locations A listing of all locations receiving the society's house lineage plaque
XXI	3	347-	Internet Yields New Photographs Titusville photographic treasure trove; recollections by Carol Meszaros; Jack Davis updates on collections	Miles Ritter
XXI	4	351-	A Bank Comes to Town A Short History of #1 North Main Street, Pennington, NJ	Jack Koepfel
XXI	4	356	Everything We Always Wanted to Know —and Then Some! Program by research specialists Bonita Craft Grant, Joseph Klett, and Beverly Weidl	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	1	359-	William Howe Exhibit Opens at Annual Meeting	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	1	364-	Photographs of Old Hopewell Highlight Second Valley Views Talk	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	2	367	Great Awakening and the Hopewell Valley	Thomas R. Seabrook
XXII	2	369-	Pennington's African-American Civil War Veterans Honored at Newly Refurbished Cemetery	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	2	371-	Restoring Yankee Spirit Jeremiah Woolsey House; excerpted from Packet Publications	Mary Ann Cavallaro
XXII	3	375-	Second Mount Rose General Store Detailed look at the proprietors and building structure	Max Hayden
XXII	3	377	Historic Building Destroyed by Fire Hopewell's Van Doren lumber yard; excerpted from HV News	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	3	379	John Notman the Subject of Holiday Talk Ellarslie Museum's Architect	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	3	380	Question: Where is this wonderful inn? Information obtained from an advertising brochure about the Rose Garden Inn; the home of Dr. Milton Marion	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	4	385-	Bucolic Pleasant Valley and Harbourton Slideshow Draws Crowd	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXII	4	387	1762 Petition Was Part of Effort to Build New Presbyterian Church Some background information on this petition	David Blackwell
XXII	4	391	A 1762 Petition to New Jersey's Colonial Legislature Text from the petition

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXIII	1	396-	New Officers Elected at Annual Meeting American Legion presented a Flag Day program on Flag Code	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXIII	2	402	Roadside Shacks Saved From Destruction One room cottages moved from their decades-old location at Route 31 & 518	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXIII	2	404	Collections Committee Update Hargreaves newsletters added to society's collections	Jack Davis
XXIII	2	406	George Washington's Last Revolutionary Home Reopens Some details about the Rockingham house	League of Historical Societies of NJ
XXIII	2	407	HVHS Member Helps Family Bible Find its Way Home Conk / Ayres	Anita Clayton
XXIII	3	409-	The Story of Tea Some tea information from program presenter Judith Krail-Russo	Lorraine Seabrook
XXIII	3	411	President's Corner Letter to editor of HV News concerning the Jacobs Creek bridge	Susan Porcella
XXIII	3	412	Restoration Planned for Hunt House The Noah Hunt House	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXIII	3	413	Yes, Pennington Did Have a Butcher Shop! Gil's Country Store (Wilson Gilbert & Claudia Horsfall)	Jim Byrnes
XXIII	4	417-	Professor Discusses New Jersey's Role in the Civil War William Gillette, Professor at Rutgers	Jack & Lorraine Seabrook
XXIII	4	421	Collections Committee Update New items include Titusville glass plates; Joseph Hart's mill account book; book about the Bryan's	Jack Davis
XXIII	4	422-	Bridge over Delaware River that Never was Built Proposed Memorial Bridge to Connect Washington's Crossing Memorial Park	Carol & Bob Meszaros
XXIII	4	423	Memorial Day Program at Historic Cemetery Some facts about the Presbyterian and Methodist congregations	Jack Davis
XXIV	1	433	A Brush With Hollywood Dooley Wilson ("Casablanca's" piano player) was part-time Pennington resident	Jack Davis
XXIV	2	437-	A Brief History of the Hopewell Public Library	Jack Seabrook
XXIV	2	442	Hopewell Township Officials Adopt Historic Landmarks Laws	John Tredrea (HV News)
XXIV	3	445-	Charles B. Howell—The Congressman from Pennington A brief account of his life	Jack Koepfel

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XIV	3	448	Local Eagle Scout's Project Improves Historic Schoolhouse Clean up of Hart's Corner Schoolhouse	from HV News
XXIV	3	450	Horse Auction At Glen Moore Facts from a 1900 auction sale	Jack Davis
XXIV	4	453-	John Hart Returns to Hopewell Bill Agress portrayed this famous personality	Jack Koeppel
XXIV	4	456	Reuben Savidge, Bonanza Phosphate Agent Tracing this merchant in the late nineteenth century	Jack Davis
XXIV	4	457	Why Historic Preservation? Program presented by Andrea Tingey from the NJ Historic Preservation Office	Will Dickey
XXIV	4	458	The Ox Roast of 1881 Article describes a "Grand Gala-Day" for area residents.	Hopewell Herald article
XXIV	4	460	Origins of Mercer County From the Historical Collections of the State of NJ	Excerpted
XXV	1	464	Collections Committee Update Advertisement for Wells' products	Jack Davis
XXV	1	466	Requiem for a House Home destruction at 59 South Main St., Pennington	David Blackwell
XXV	1	467	A Fertilizer Festivity in 1895 A day trip to Lister's factory in Newark	Jack Davis
XXV	2	469-	A Home in the Country St. Michael's Orphanage & Industrial School	Jack Koeppel
XXV	2	472-	Pennington Circa 1820 Includes conjectural map of Pennington circa 1820	David Blackwell
XXV	2	473	Football Violence in 1899 Pennington Seminary games	Jack Davis
XXV	2	474	Members Travel Back in Time: HVHS Day at Howell Farm and Pleasant Valley Society members tour farm and Pleasant Valley	Will Dickey
XXV	2	475	St. Michael's Orphanage Band Makes Debut Dines With Governor Silzer at Stacy Trent from 1925 edition of Trenton Times	Excerpted
XXV	3	477-	As the Nation Grows Introduction to articles in this issue of newsletter	Jack Koeppel
XXV	3	478-	Titusville Genesis Description of Joseph Titus's commencement of developing the town	David Blackwell

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXV	3	479-	Society Promotes Historic Preservation Program by Dr. Emily Cooperman, Director of Historic Preservation at the Cultural Resource Consulting Group	Will Dickey
XXV	3	481-	Log Rafts on the Delaware The lumbering business in the late nineteenth century	Jack Koeppel
XXV	3	483	Hopewell Valley's Man-Made Waterway Delaware and Raritan Canal	Jack Koeppel
XXV	3	484-	Crossing the Delaware — Before Washington Facts about the ferries crossing the Delaware	Jack Davis
XXV	4	487-	Harbourton Village A brief story	David Blackwell
XXV	4	488	Old Photo Night	Will Dickey
XXV	4	488	What's in a Name Herberton, Herbert-Town	Jack Koeppel
XXV	4	490	Native Americans Nearby: Lenape Indians in Hopewell Valley Overview of the program by Jim Wade	Will Dickey
XXV	4	491-	19th C. Proprietors of the Harbourton Store	Jack Koeppel
XXV	4	493-	Harbourton To 1834	David Blackwell
XXVI	1	497-	Victorian Summer Fun What people did for fun during the hottest days of summer in the 1880's & 1890's	Jack Davis
XXVI	1	498-	Knee High by the Fourth of July Work and fun of farmer Oliver Titus, around 1875	David Blackwell
XXVI	1	499-	Summertime at the Quarry An up-close look at the Hopewell Quarry Swim Club	Jack Koeppel
XXVI	2	507-	Clues from Hopewell Valley's Long Lost Railroad In-depth look at the Mercer and Somerset Railroad, c. 1875	Jack Koeppel
XXVI	2	508-	Hopewell Baseball in 1893 Hopewell Base Ball Club opponents; wins and losses	Jack Davis
XXVI	2	509-	Hopewell's Students Spread the Baptist Word Throughout the Colonies Hopewell Academy and the founding of Brown University	David Blackwell
XXVI	2	510	On Railroads in Hopewell Valley Pennsylvania Railroad builds Mercer-Somerset road	Isabel Clarkson (Excerpted A.B. Lewis)
XXVI	2	515	Valley Baseball Fans Take a Swing at History Bill Gleason's program on baseball in America	John Tredrea (Excerpted HV News)
XXVI	3	517-	Indians of the Hopewell Valley Information from Mr. Wade's program	Jim Wade

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXVI	3	518-	Pennington Begins in the West Jersey Forest The story begin in 1708 with 1300 acres of land that would become to known as Pennington	David Blackwell
XXVI	3	519-	John Smith's Alias Pennytown Smith was an early settler in Pennytown.	Jack Davis
XXVI	3	523	Pennington 1708–2008 Brief synopsis of the Pennington settlement	Jack Koeppel
XXVI	4	525-	Memories of Blaring Sirens and Polished Chrome Pennington Fire Company	Jack Koeppel
XXVI	4	526	Lindbergh Kidnapping Case Continues to Fascinate Champ Atlee presented this program	Will Dickey
XXVI	4	527	Jonathan Stout – Hopewell Baptist Church Founder	David Blackwell
XXVI	4	531	NJ: Storm Center of American Revolution A brief overview of the battles or skirmishes in NJ	Will Dickey
XXVI	4	532	Homes on Main – Pennington Historic Home Tour — 2008	Jack Koeppel
XXVII	1	535-	Gone to Western Lands Valley residents search the horizons	David Blackwell
XXVII	1	536-	The Finney and Fetter Steam Saw Mill John Finney and Anthony G. Fetter (Anton Gabriel Vetter)	Jack Davis
XXVII	1	540-	Saloons on Wheels An 1908 editorial from John Corcoran	excerpted (from HV News)
XXVII	1	543	Baseball 1908–Hopewell Athletic Club	excerpted (from HV News)
XXVII	2	545-	A Country School in Pleasant Valley Mr. Kidder researched & presented this program	Larry Kidder
XXVII	2	546-	Pennington Grammar School: The Early Years 1926–1940 Guest writer from the Timberlane Middle School, 6th grade, age 12	Jordan Antebi
XXVII	2	547-	Walking Schools: The End of an Era Hart's Corner School and others changed by law	Jack Koeppel
XXVII	2	552-	Early Halloween in the Hopewell Valley	Jack Davis
XXVII	2	553	The Mystery of the Tick-Tack	Jack Davis
XXVII	3	555-	Answering the Call – The Story of Joab Houghton Mr. Houghton called volunteer soldiers to join the fight against the British	Jack Davis

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXVII	3	556-	The Big House Colonel Kunkel's home on Delaware Avenue	Jack Koeppel
XXVII	3	557-	Samuel and Maximilla Blackwell Founders of Pennington's A.M.E. Congregation	David Blackwell
XXVII	3	563	Roebing Family in New Jersey and Beyond George Lengel's program about the wire manufacturer	Will Dickey
XXVII	4	565-	In Search of Moore's Mills and Moore Family Who were the Moore's and where was there mill is answered in this story	David Blackwell
XXVII	4	566-	Pennington Goes Dry A 1918 vote reported the vote as NN-dry and N-wet	Jack Davis
XXVII	4	569-	A National Park of Our Own New material gives information about visionaries trying to create a national park at the site of Washingtons Crossing	Jack Koeppel
XXVIII	1	575-	Pennington's First Family Colonel John A. Kunkle	Jack Koeppel
XXVIII	1	578	The Business of Improvement-Pennington Enters the 20th Century Colonel John A. Kunkle urged Pennington's modern improvements	Jack Koeppel
XXVIII	1	580-	Pennington Improvement Association Anniversary Excerpted from the Pennington Post , November 15, 1899
XXVIII	2	583-	Cannons in the Snow A story about Washington's March through Hopewell Township on December 26, 1776	David Blackwell
XXVIII	2	586-	Sign of the Bear A detailed summary of the tavern located in Hopewell Township	Jack Davis
XXVIII	2	590-	That Dreadful Night A fascinating summary of Washington's Crossing the Delaware.	Jack Koeppel
XXIX	1	593-	Celebrating America's Centennial-1876 The Delaware & Bound Brook Railroad Opens	Jack Davis
XXIX	1	596-	Railroad Communities in Hopewell Valley: Glenmoore	Jordan Antebi
XXIX	1	598-	Railroad Communities in Hopewell Valley: Moore's Station	Jordan Antebi
XXIX	2	603	This Place Matters Newly appointed president reviews the Society's coming year.	David Blackwell
XXIX	2	604-	Hopewell Township Preservation Commission Review of the Commission's work	David Blackwell
XXIX	2	605-	Andy Swan, Pennington's Major League Player and the Swan Hotel	Jack Davis

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXIX	2	607-	Pennington Debates Creating an Historic District	David Blackwell
XXIX	2	608	Jacobs Creek Bridge and its Rural Historic Nomination	David Blackwell
XXIX	2	608	Art Show Yields $1,344 for the Society	David Blackwell
XXIX	2	609-	Base Ball Craze Reaches Hopewell Valley	Jack Davis
XXIX	2	612	Friends of Hopewell Valley Open Space and Howell Farm Hold Mountain Fest Weekend Joint organizations held weekend to celebrate the northwest corner of Township.	David Blackwell
XXIX	3	613-	Titusville Mills: Preserved Land Has Long History The author combines current surroundings with old facts.	Jack Koeppel
XXIX	3	615	This Place Matters David Blackwell explains efforts to place Jacobs Creek Crossing on State and National Historic Places list.	David Blackwell
XXIX	3	621	Historic District for Pennington Working on creation of Pennington Crossroads Historic District	David Blackwell
XXIX	3	621	Hopewell Township Preservation Commission Reorganizes Work on nominations including the Boehm house and gardens on River Road	David Blackwell
XXIX	3	622	Upcoming Programs John Nagy's Book entitled "Invisible Ink"
XXX	1	623-	In Search of Stoutsburg Stoutsburg is currently remembered for it's cemetery. This narration demonstrates it was a bustling village.	Jack Davis
XXX	1	629	Historical Society Awards Two Scholarships Some background about the award, selection process and student biographies.	Beth Kerr
XXX	1	630-	HVHS Annual Meeting Meeting held at the Old Barracks; a tour was given to the members.
XXX	2	633-	Lt. Col. William B. Curlis—The Story of His Pennington Muskrats A detailed story about Curlis' service during the Civil War.	David Blackwell
XXX	2	639-	The Civil War and Hopewell Valley — Snippets from the Past Short biography on Col. Joab Houghton and Henry Harrison Woolsey.	Jack Koeppel
XXX	2	640-	Society Hosts Historic Cemetery Tour — "Spirits of Hopewell Valley" Five cemeteries were on tour; with re-enactors present	Hilary Burke

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXX	3	643	Beyond the Crossing – Hopewell Valley at War (part 1) Recounting the fight for independence in our area.	Jordan Antebi
XXX	3	649-	Mr. Blackwell’s Apples — The Story Behind the Photo Story relating to the photograph “Apples After Flood” at the Blackwell Farm	Larry Kidder
XXX	4	653-	“Mr. Ege’s Place”—The Story Behind the Photo Facts about the Ege Farm located along the Delaware River	Larry Kidder
XXX	4	657-	Beyond the Crossing – Hopewell Valley at War (part 2) Recounting the fight for independence in our area.	Jordan Antebi
XXX	4	660	Author Recounts the Crime of the Century Summary of program by Lloyd Gardner about the Lindbergh kidnapping case	Jack Koeppel
XXXI	1	663-	“Hopewell Was Like a Roman Circus”— Search for a Hero’s Son Summary of the Lindbergh kidnapping March 1, 1932	Jim Davidson
XXXI	1	665	Jim Davidson — A Biography	Jack Koeppel
XXXI	2	673-	William P. Howe — Pennington Visionary An expanded look at Mr. Howe as a developer of the area	Jack Koeppel
XXXI	2	676-	Howe Nurseries, Pennington A glimpse at the Howe nursery business	Jack Koeppel
XXXI	3	685-	Bypassed! – The Story of Marshall’s Corner- Woodsville Road A description of the re-alignment of today’s highway route 31 during 1927 & 1934.	Jack Davis
XXXI	3	690	Vision Becomes Reality with New Book Launch of Peter Osborne’s book (with William Farkas) “Where Washington Once Led—A History of New Jersey’s Washington Crossing State Park”	Hilary Burke
XXXII	1	695-	A New Glimpse of The Road to Monmouth Through Hopewell Valley, June 1778 An extensive article focuses on the route Washington took to the Battle at Monmouth	David Blackwell Tom Ogren
XXXII	1	699-	A Look at Ralston Castle and Ralston Heights Background information on these properties located in Hopewell Borough; built by Webster Edgerly, beginning 1895.	Jack Davis Debbie Gwazda David Blackwell
XXXII	2	707-	HVHS 2013 Annual Meeting Speakers were Elric Endersby and Alex Greenwood from the New Jersey Barn Co.	Beth Kerr

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXXII	2	708-	Penn Brook Club: A Little Bit of a Miracle Book launching. Descriptions of the efforts made to successfully build a swim club in Pennington in the mid-1950's.	Lorraine Seabrook
XXXII	2	709-	Larry Kidder Publishes Local Militia Book The book is titled "A People Harassed and Exhausted" about the men of a NJ Militia Regiment in the Revolutionary War	Beth Kerr
XXXII	2	712-	Dashing Through the Snow A fun description of transportation and entertaining insights in this winter-time activity.	Jack Davis
XXXII	3	715-	Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory Henry Woolsey and Edward Welling are described in this account of their lives in Hopewell Township and service during the Civil War.	David Blackwell
XXXII	3	718-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes In Tom's first report, he updates us on the Marshall's Corner School House and the completion of making the blue Pennington Crossroad Historic District Signs.	Tom Ogren
XXXII	3	722-	Society Receives Important Donation A collection of artifacts was received from the Woolsey family. A family history is also included.	Jack Koeppel
XXXII	4	725-	Steven Burrowes—A Saddler's Progress A detailed profile of this man as a young apprentice, a militiaman, businessman, family man, and an inventor.	Jack Davis
XXXII	4	728-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes An update about the Atchley/Hunter Farmstead and the Hunt (Longspring) Farmstead are reported in this article.	Tom Ogren
XXXII	4	730	Howell Farm Hosts Smithsonian Exhibit—Hometown Teams Howell Living History Farm hosted a traveling exhibit by the Smithsonian demonstrating the long history sports has had in our community.	Beth Kerr
XXXIII	1	736-	Joseph Moore Phillips, The Father of Hopewell An in-depth description of the Phillips family and the link to the Hart homestead; his service to country and the Hopewell community.	David Blackwell
XXXIII	1	738-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes An account of the conversion of auto dealer buildings in Hopewell to a food market/cafe. In Hopewell Township, the transformation of the Stout-Chorley house to seat restaurant customers; addition of out buildings.	Tom Ogren
XXXIII	1	741-	HVHS Archives Critical in Writing of New Book The book by Larry Kidder: Farming Pleasant Valley—250 Years of Life in Rural Hopewell Township, New Jersey credits using the archives of HVHS collections and the Hopewell Herald collections.	Beth Kerr

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXXIII	1	742-	Aeronaut Landing Astonishes Hopewell Residents in 1820 A story about the landing of a balloon in Hopewell Township	Jack Davis
XXXIII	2	745-	The 1930s: How Things Used to Be The author writes this story to help capture his past; his childhood memories, recollections about his parents, his Hopewell Township homestead that started in 1932	Michael J. Rovello
XXXIII	2	748-	Charles Hunter's Receipts—A Treasure of the HVHS Archives The author recounts the life of farmer Charles Hunter with the visual receipts from 30 years of purchases from local businesses in the Pleasant Valley area.	Larry Kidder
XXXIII	3	755-	The Importance of a Chapel—Pennington Begins The author writes an in-depth story about the beginning of Pennington as part of the 125th Anniversary of Pennington's Incorporation.	David Blackwell
XXXIII	3	757-	Pennington Declares Independence Information about the separation of Pennington from Hopewell Township as secession was implemented through a special referendum.	Jack Davis
XXXIII	3	758-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes The Henry Phillips Farmhouse (part of the Howell Living History Farm) is owned by Mercer County for many years; restoration of the structure was recently completed. The story gives details.	Tom Ogren
XXXIII	3	765	Historic Photos to be Exhibited [in 2015] As part of the 125th Anniversary celebrating Pennington's incorporation, photos were displayed at the Pennington School's Silva Gallery of Art.	Beth Kerr
XXXIII	4	767-	Diary of Mamie Harbourt 1928 (edited by) Carol E Meszarros Excerpts from Anna Mary Snook Harbout's diary. She was known as "Mamie" (1855-1933) Diary notes about life in Titusville were culled from May, 1928 to Dec. 1928.
XXXIII	4	769	Fund Raising Possibilities Bob Warznak introduces us to the information concerning employer/employee contributions (grants) to non-profits.	R. Warznak
XXXIII	4	770-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes This article focuses on Pennington's historic preservation ordinance. For 24 years, the Council was unable to get the ordinance approved and it established a historic district. Approval occurred in 2011.	Tom Ogren
XXXIII	4	774-	Pennington's 125th Exhibit Opens "Pennington Comes of Age" was the title of the exhibit held at the Pennington School's Silva Gallery of Art. Pictures from the Frisbie collection as well as other memorabilia was viewed by many visitors to the exhibit. The Frisbie family also attended.	Beth Kerr

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXXIV	1	777	Pennington's Historic House Tour Information about the October 3, 2015 house tour was given in this short article.	Beth Kerr
XXXIV	1	778-	Two New Jersey Regiments with Local Men Helped End the Civil War This article focuses on the Titus, Updike and Blackwell families. David's well researched article includes details about their service and battles.	David Blackwell
XXXIV	1	780-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes Tom Ogren gives details on the restoration of the headmasters house at the Pennington School	Tom Ogren
XXXIV	1	784	Recent Programs A Century in Titusville with the Niederer family General Motors Plant and The Naval Air Propulsion Testing Center	Beth Kerr
XXXIV	2	787-	The 1860 Election Campaign in Hopewell Valley The author gives factors about the national and local election campaign. It was described as a heated event.	Jack Davis
XXXIV	2	790	Historic Preservation—News & Notes Tom tells us about the renovation of Hopewell Borough's house located at 53 East Broad Street. It is the new home of Gary Michael's Sourland Cycles.	Tom Ogren
XXXIV	2	792	Past Programs and Events 1—Dairy Farming display at the Hopewell Township Library 2—Dairy Farming Talk by Dr. Morris Fabian 3—Pennington House Tour	Beth Kerr Robert Warznak
XXIV	2	793	Our Second Barn Dance was a Success Many photos of the events held in 2015	Beth Kerr
XXIV	3	797	This issue celebrates Hopewell Borough's 125 Anniversary
XXIV	3	798-	History of Hopewell Village—from Country Church to Post Office, 1747 to 1822 An in-depth commentary about the beginning of Hopewell Borough	David Blackwell
XXXIV	3	800-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes An analysis of Pennington Borough's endeavor to save aging homes with restoration instead of demolition – located at 126 and 149 Main Street. Secondly, an update on HVHS's application for a grant to restore exterior of Hart's Corner Schoolhouse.	Tom Ogren
XXXIV	3	802-	Reprint from the Hopewell Herald—"Hopewell Sleigh Races" A delightful story about sleighs for pleasure and race competitions.	Tom Ogren
XXXIV	4	809-	HVHS Newsletter Index Finished . . . for Now Carol reported that she had completed work on newsletters from the beginning – Vol. 1 No. 1 through Vol. 30, No 4. She explains some of the obstacles encountered during the completion.	Carol Errickson Karl Niederer

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXXIV	4	810-	Old School vs. New School—A Controversy in Hopewell The author summarizes the development/separation of the Baptist Church in Hopewell.	Jack Davis
XXXIV	4	812-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes An update on the New Jersey Historic Trust funds. Grants were awarded to restore the Noah Hunt house; passage of public referendum to enable continuing awards. Gives details of the Hunt House restoration.	Tom Ogren
XXXIV	4	814-	Faces and Places: A Photographic Show of Hopewell People, Their Homes & Businesses David Blackwell created an exhibit that was shown at the Hopewell Museum and the Hopewell Borough Hall. The article thanks the people that lent or donated pictures for this event.	Beth Kerr
XXXIV	4	818	On National Trails Day Hike A gathering of folks taking time to explore the Alliger Park (soon to be re-named Woolsey Park). Sponsored by HVHS and Friends of HV Open Space.	Beth Kerr
XXXV	1	821-	Cannon Fire in Hopewell Village—Citizens Rally for Andrew Jackson in 1828 A biography of Andrew Jackson with Hopewell supporters. The cannon “Old Hunterdon” is detailed.	David Blackwell
XXXV	1	824-	Historic Preservation—News & Notes Preservation/restoration of the Kuser Estate at Baldpate Mountain is the focus of this article. The Kuser’s lived here for 77 years. Trap Rock then owned the property/area.	Tom Ogren
XXXV	1	828-	Josiah Baldwin, Entrepreneur—A Life in Victorian Era Pennington The text reviews the Baldwin family and businesses they operated.	Jack Davis
XXXV	2	831-	The Poor Farm and the George Smith House Background details of construction of the Hopewell Township Poor Farm and the owners of the residence near the Poor Farm.	David Blackwell
XXXV	2	832	Museum of the American Revolution Pictures and a brief description of the recently opened building in Philadelphia.	Larry Kidder
XXXV	2	834-	Hopewell Township Historic Preservation Commission Announces the Listing of Two Properties on Its Historic Register The two properties named are the Steven & Edwin Titus Farmstead and the John Stillwell House.	David Blackwell
XXXV	2	835-	From Slavery to Freedom—The African American Blew Family of Stoutsburg A chronology of the Blew family and some details about the Stoutsburg Cemetery.	Jack Davis

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXXV	2	839	The Mercer and Somerset Right of Way HVHS board members participated in a walking tour of portions of the right of way near Jacobs Creek.	Robert Warznak
XXXV	3	841-	In Search of Marshall's Corner A detailed synopsis of the Marshall's Corner crossroads and the tiny village.	Jack Davis
XXXV	3	846	Furman Titus' Helmet Pictured is the helmet worn by Furman Titus on the day that Marquis De Lafayette was on a grand tour to Washington, DC for a ceremony.	David Blackwell
XXXV	3	849	Display of Mercer County 4-H Memorabilia at the Mercer County Library–Hopewell Branch The article and picture describe a month-long exhibit about the 100th Anniversary of the 4-H in Mercer County.	Robert Warznak
XXXVI	1	853-	Stony Brook Runs through It—Hopewell Valley Golf Club Reaches its 90 Year Milestone The golf course, established in 1927, is celebrating 90 years. The author provides details from the inception of the idea of making a golf course. Gives a history of the ownership of the property.	David Blackwell
XXXVI	1	860	Recent Program Presented A History of 51 North Main Street The author gave a history of the ownership of the property.	James L. Merritt
XXXVI	2	863-	Black Families in Pleasant Valley Larry gives extensive details about the slaves living in Pleasant Valley.	Larry Kidder
XXXVI	2	865	I Now Pronounce You, Woolsey Park! Dedication of the newly re-named Woolsey Park located on Pennington-Washington Crossing Road (near Scotch Road)	Beth Kerr
XXXVI	2	870	Hannah Hill Drake Recounts Two Revolutionary War Incidents David Blackwell introduces the story of John Drake; the man with the crooked stick.	David Blackwell
XXXVI	2	871	Spirits of Hopewell Valley Re-enactors (including HVHS members) perform the roles of historical people from the 1700s & 1800s.	Beth Kerr
XXXVI	3	873-	Caring for the Poor in Hopewell Township The author starts with details at the beginning of the 1700s with the Township's introduction of Overseers of the Poor and appropriation of funds. He summarizes the work done by the Overseers, the availability of money to build a poor house. In 1899, foster homes were introduced. In 1923, mother's pensions were started so children could be kept at home.	David Blackwell
XXXVI	3	880-	Celebrating the 100th Anniversary of 4-H Introduction to the celebration. A call for continuing efforts to obtain new artifacts for the Society.	Robert Warznak

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXXVI	4	883-	The Civil War Begins—A Local Perspective The article describes Lincoln's emergence into the Civil War. The public's reaction to him and the call to the loyal states for militia to assemble; with details about its leaders.	Jack Davis
XXXVI	4	884-	Memories of David Blackwell Jack Davis writes about his friend; David's ceaseless love of history.	Jack Davis
XXXVI	4	891	Hopewell Valley Heritage Weekend—2018 An introduction to the activities and a list of scheduled events and locations.	Beth Kerr
XXXVII	1	893-	4-H Program Origins in Hopewell Larry expands our insight into this organization. It was realized that knowledge of scientific measures were needed to help farmers. Because some of the farming community rejected this, it was thought to use schools as the messenger. Larry comments on both local and national clubs.	Larry Kidder
XXXVII	1	897	It's Never too Late to Get History Right The sign posted on the exterior of the Harbourton Store was finally corrected. For 53 years, Joyce Harbourton petitioned to get the correct spelling of the Harbourton name on the sign.	Martin Rapp
XXXVII	1	900-	Hopewell Valley Heritage Weekend—2018 Many pictures of the events.	Beth Kerr
XXXVII	1	902-	Museum Matters Pictures and text describing axe-heads found in the Township.	Ian Borrow
XXXVII	2	905-	The Patriotic Devotion of Charity Ogden A detailed biography of Charity Ogden—a Township native—during her service in the Civil War.	Jack Davis
XXXVII	2	912-	Museum Matters A description of the Museum's recent remodeling — both inside and outside.	Joe Klett
XXXVII	2	913	"If These Stones Could Talk" A book about the burial grounds at the Stoutsburg Cemetery.	Beverly Mills
XXXVII	2	914	A Closer Look at Tombstones The title is self-explanatory.	Cheryl Jackson
XXXVII	2	915	Oral Histories Never Grow Old This article includes background to the start of the HVHS Oral History Project. Also included is part of an interview by volunteer Jerry Farina with Mary Borelli.	Carol Cherry Smith
XXXVII	3	917-	A Time of Change: The 1870s A factual article about the Hopewell Valley area. The primary livelihood was farming. The author informs us problems encountered by farmers and solving with the introduction of machines. The text also gives an understanding of the small villages; churches and schools.	Larry Kidder

Volume	Number	Page	Article Title with Summary	Author
XXXVII	3	920	Hopewell Valley Heritage Weekend–2019 Details of the participating organizations and people. Photos from the 2018 weekend are included.	Beth Kerr
XXXVII	3	924	Museum Matters Children from the district schools explored native American artifacts.	Ian Burrow
XXXVII	3	925	“Ten Crucial Days” of American Revolution Larry has produced this book to help us understand Gen. Washington’s plans with the Trenton attack and the aftermath of the Battle of Princeton.	Jack Davis
XXXVII	4	929-	Carlisle Student “Outings” in the Hopewell Valley– 1887-1918 The author explores the facts he found that American Indians were brought to Hopewell Valley from the Indian Industrial School in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. The purpose was have the students get acclimated to a White man’s culture.	Larry Kidder
XXXVII	4	934-	List of Carlisle Indian Outings in Hopewell Valley List contains the Hopewell Valley sponsor followed by the young men’s names.	Larry Kidder
XXXVII	4	936-	Museum Matters A 1804 catalog of books was discovered listing books belonging the Hopewell Library Company.	Bonita Craft Grant Jack Davis
XXXVIII	1	941–	Women's Suffrage Movement in Hopewell Valley – Part One 1776-1916 An article about the women's suffrage movement	Joseph Klett
XXXVIII	2	953–	Straube Center: from Foundry to Distillery and Beyond A description of the development of this site	Dan Pace
XXXIX	1	965–	Alice Stout and Roy Bidwell—A love story that bridge the miles from Titusville to Singapore A story about the Stout's and Bidwell's	Coral Teresa Allen Bidwell
XXXIX	2	981–	Victorian Summer Memories A look back at the activities during the summer season	Jack Davis
XXXIX	2	986–	My Great-Grandparents, Jim and Lou Pierson Mr. Klett takes a look back at his family's history	Joseph Klett